

Your Pocket Guide to Prague

Sights to See & Things to Do

Old Town Square

is the center of the old town of Prague and home to the Astronomical Clock and the Church Before our Lady Tyn. On the outskirts of the square you have the St. Nicholas Hussite Church.

Jewish Quarter is one of the most famous Jewish Quarters in Europe and the most preserved. Here you can find the Old New Synagogue and Jewish Cemetery.

Church of St. James is the most haunted church in Prague and the home of a real hanging human arm above the door.

National Theater is the last place where Mozart conducted a live orchestra and today you can see many performances for almost nothing.

New Town Square, Prague used to be surrounded by a wall and only three of the towers still stand. New Town Square being the heart of the Powder Tower.

Prague Castle District is a city on its own. It will take the day to go through the entire district. Be sure to see the lighting done by the rolling stones on the castle at night.

John Lennon Wall was started by a group of kids writing about their hardships and eventually morphed into a wall dedicated to peace and the Beatles.

Charles Bridge is one of the most famous entrances to the walled city and the first bridge over the river to connect the castle with the people of Prague.

Petřín- A mini Eiffel Tower! The hike up gives a gorgeous view of the city through Cherry Blossom trees. You can also climb to the top of the tower for a better view.

Prague Zoo- Is a great deal for your money. It is a huge zoo that will take the day to see and only costs $5.

Places to Eat

Svatý Norbert (St. Norbert)

Monastery- MAKE RESERVATIONS.

Even on the weekdays this place is full and difficult to get a table. Call ahead for some traditional Czech food and homemade beer.

Lokal is our favorite restaurant. They have a rotating menu so each day is different.

They have a number of options, all traditional Czech. And it is incredibly cheap.

Mincovona is the only restaurant in Old Town Square that is not overpriced. It is a good restaurant with a nice patio in the spring time.

Burrito Loco, if you need a break from Czech food, Burrito Loco has decently priced, delicious burritos and other Mexican dishes.

Dlouha is a mixture of all different types of foods: fruit bar, meat sandwiches, and a café, all made fresh.

Places to Drink

Svatý Norbert Monastery Brewery has all their own craft beer brewed in house and is very inexpensive. Located at the top of the hill in the Castle District

Standard Café is a great bar to hang out at for a couple beers and some appetizers.

Vžorkorna is a very local bar with very cheap beer.

Duende is our favorite. It is kind of weird because there are dogs just running around inside but it is an incredibly local experience.

The Beer Walk- All the best local pubs within walking distance: Al Capone's (get the Tecka mixed drink) U Dvou Kocek, U Veivodu, Locál. By the Castle District there is: Valasska Pivnice, Popocafepetle, U Hrocha, and Malostranska Beseda. (yes these are all real words, we czeched.)

New Europe Free Walking Tour another great free tour and does only a few places different than Royal City.

Discover Prague Castle Tour is a bit expensive but gives completely history of the Castle District and runs three times a day, 11 am, 3 pm, and 5 pm.
